9. Endangerment of Staff or Students – Don Mill Career College for Health, Business, and Technology is committed to the right of all College staff, students, clients and visitors to be safe. Students who by action or neglect in any way endanger the safety of themselves or others may be expelled.

Prior to expulsion, depending on the severity and nature of the situation, Don Mill Career College for Health, Business, and Technology may take intermediate steps at its discretion including:

- a. verbal warning
- b. written warning
- c. suspension
- d. expulsion

Notification:

Students who are subject to expulsion for any reason will be notified in writing, either hand delivered or by registered mail with return receipt. Don Mill Career College for Health, Business, and Technology is not responsible for non-delivery by registered mail if the student has not provided a valid home address where the student currently resides.

The notification will contain a description of the basis for expulsion and the effective date. Expelled students who dispute the facts of the expulsion must appeal the decision within three days of the notification following the complaints procedure of Don Mill Career College for Health, Business, and Technology provided to the student and providing sufficient proof to support the complaint.

Students who file an appeal and are unsuccessful are considered withdrawn from Don Mill Career College for Health, Business, and Technology. Further appeals must be filed through the Complaints process of the Ministry of Training, Colleges and Universities, provided the students are attending a registered program recognized as being protected under the Private Career Colleges Act 2005.
